Social Movement/Enterprise Workshop

Join us for an interdisciplinary workshop focused on questions of political mobilization, corporate-social responsibility, activism, and social change!

Winter Quarter 2018 Schedule

Mon, Jan. 8: Book Club: The Whole World is Watching by Todd Gitlin
5:00-6:30pm

Tues, Jan. 23: Eulalie Laschever
5:00-6:30pm
“Opposing Movements and the Politics of Blocking: How the Gun Rights Movement Preserves its Political Advantage After Attention-Grabbing Mass Shootings”

Mon, Feb. 5: Visitor: Prof. Elisabeth S. Clemens, University of Chicago
5:00-6:30pm
TBA

Mon, Feb. 12: Richard Paquin Morel
5:00-6:30pm
“Strange Frame Fellows: Discursive Tactics of the Anti-Testing Movement”

Mon, Feb. 26: Anna McKean
5:00-6:30pm
“Signing to Signal: An Examination of Motivations Behind Corporate Activism”

Faculty Organizer: Brayden King (b-king@kellogg.northwestern.edu)
Student Organizers: Grace Augustine (g-augustine@kellogg.northwestern.edu), Josh Basseches (jbasseches@u.northwestern.edu), and Lisa Buchter (LisaBuchter2017@u.northwestern.edu)

All workshop meetings are held in the Kellogg Global Hub. Please email one or more of the organizers (listed above) for exact room number.