Northwestern University, Department of Sociology

Culture & Society Workshop Winter 2019

Thursdays, 3:30 PM to 5:30 PM, Parkes Hall - Room 222
1870 Sheridan Road Evanston, IL 60208

January 10
Gabriela Kirk, NU Sociology
"Narrative and the Expectation of Collateral Consequences: Experiences of Electronic Home Monitoring"

January 17
William Marler, NU Communications Studies
"Connective Ambition and Creative Caution: Facebook Use among Unstably Housed Adults in Chicago"

January 24
Wendy Griswold and Anna Michelson, NU Sociology
"The Outsider’s Edge: Geography, Sexuality, and Gender in the Local Color Movement"

January 31
Vincent Yung, NU Sociology
"Sociometry, Group Dynamics, and Positional Analysis: Early Visions for the Quantification of Social Structure"

February 7
Alyssa Lynne, NU Sociology
"Paired Double-Consciousness: Thai Kathoey Selfhood"

February 14
No meeting

February 21
Mallory Fallin, NU Sociology
"TBA"

February 28
Niamba Baskerville, NU Sociology
"Crafting Conservative Consciousness: Political Consultants and Rightward Politics"

March 7
Geoff Harkness, Rhode Island College
"Hijab Micropractices: The Strategic and Situational Use of Clothing by Qatari Women"

The Culture and Society Workshop is an interdisciplinary workshop for advanced graduate students (third-year and above) and faculty whose research involves the connections between culture and society. New members are always welcome! For more information, please contact student coordinators Anna Michelson and Morgan Clark: cultureworkshop@gmail.com or faculty Director Wendy Griswold at w-griswold@northwestern.edu