Join us for an interdisciplinary workshop focused on questions of political mobilization, corporate-social responsibility, activism, and social change!

Tuesdays, 5:00-6:30pm
Kellogg Global Hub, Room 5201

WINTER QUARTER 2019 SCHEDULE

January 8: Wendy Pearlman
“Organization from scratch: Collective action without prior mobilizing structures in the Syrian uprising”

January 22: Richard Paquin Morel
“Racialized accountability threat: Demographic changes and participation in boycotts of standardized tests”

February 5: Brainstorming Session
[To present an idea, contact anna.mckean@kellogg.northwestern.edu]

February 19: Anna McKean and Brayden King
“Signing to Signal: Examining Factors behind Proactive Corporate Activism”

Faculty Organizer: Brayden King (b-king@kellogg.northwestern.edu)
Student Organizers: Josh Basseches (jbasseches@u.northwestern.edu) and Anna McKean (anna.mckean@kellogg.northwestern.edu)