Join us for an interdisciplinary workshop focused on questions of political mobilization, corporate-social responsibility, activism, and social change!

Wednesdays, 5:00-6:30pm
Kellogg Global Hub, Room 5201

Winter Quarter 2019 Schedule

January 15:
Eulalie Laschever
“Focusing Events, Opposing Movements, and Legislative Change: Changes to State Gun Laws Before and After Sandy Hook”

January 29:
Michael Rodríguez-Muñiz
“Figures of the Future: Latino Civil Rights and the Democratic Quest for Recognition”

February 12:
Tae-Ung Choi
“The Effect of Sustainability Manager’s Field Engagement on Organizational Adoption of Sustainability Practices”

February 26:
Miri Eliyahu
“Moral tool kits and allies: How moral actors gain allies in the food industry”

Faculty Organizer: Brayden King (b-king@kellogg.northwestern.edu)

Student Organizers: Anna McKean (anna.mckeans@kellogg.northwestern.edu) and Rachel Ramirez (rachel.ramirez@kellogg.northwestern.edu)